

Dream Jobs

Planning a career is a lifelong process. It began as a child when you may have discovered you enjoyed taking things apart, or playing with building block, or caring for your favorite doll. You were developing interest, skills, values, and attitudes. This development continues throughout your life, but it is also important to consider the steps necessary to successfully plan a career.

Begin by reflecting on your Dream Job.

Your dream job is a result of integrating many factors that are important to you. These factors may include your preference for teamwork or independent work, your desire for indoor or outdoor work, the salary level desired, or the level of education required.

Many issues must be considered when planning your future.

If you could have any occupation in the world, what would it be? Imagine the possibilities.
